The Curse of Progress

Smart

The officer took out his book and poised his stubby pencil. "What's your name?"

"John Smith."

"Yer real name," bawled the officer, who had been tricked before.

"Well, then, put me down as William Shakespeare."

"That's better. Yuh can't fool me with that Smith stuff."

Nothing New

Adorer (nervously) — Isn't that your father's step on the stairs?

Sweet Girl — Yes, but don't mind that; it's only a scare. He won't come down. He always stamps around that way when I sit up with young men after 11 o'clock.

Super Salesgirl

Mother—What happened when that high-pressure salesman called today?

Daughter—Oh, I sold him father's old clothes and all the discarded furniture in the attic.—Detroit Free Press.

Household Questions

Custard pies should first be started to bake in a hot oven to set the crust, then the heat of the oven should be quickly reduced so that the custard may cook slowly.

• • •

When blankets are washed at home do not wring them dry. Instead hang them outdoors on the clothesline to dry.

• • •

Raisin sauce served on steamed or baked cottage puddings makes a good Winter dessert and one advised for children.

If the chicken is well rubbed inside and out with a cut lemon before being cooked it will make the meat white, juicy and tender.

Left-over cauliflower can be dipped in cracked crumbs and egg and fried in deep fat and served for luncheon or supper.

• • •

Never beat or stir cereals or rice with a spoon. It makes them pasty. Use a silver-plated fork.

Smiles

Enough in One

"There's one thing I like about that boy of yours, Jones," said Smith, after he had patiently listened to the latest achievement of the child.

"What's that?" said the fond father.

"He isn't a twin."

With Variations

A small Negro boy, with a part in the school entertainment, was to appear on the platform (quoting from the Master) "Be not afraid: it is I." It was a scared bit of dusky humanity which finally appeared and, with a gulp, said, "Don't git skeered. Tain't nobody but me."—Pleasant Hill Times.

Up and Down

The deep-sea diver was hard at work on the ocean bed. Suddenly an urgent voice came over the telephone which connected him with the boat above.

"What's the matter, chum?" he asked.

"Come up quickly," he heard. "The captain's just told me the bloomin' boat's sinking."

Loquacious Elmer

"Elmer — Elmer, do you love me?"

"I'll say."

"Do you think I'm beautiful?"

"You bet."

"Are my eyes the loveliest you've ever seen?"

"Yes."

"—my mouth like a rosebud?"

"You know it."

"—and my figure divine?"

"Uh-huh."

"Oh, Elmer, you say the nicest things. Tell me some more."

Battlefields Still Draw

More than 250,000 people a year are still visiting the battlefields of France. Most of them are French. Then come Belgians, and Germans take third place in numbers.

Verdun alone attracted 14,700 Germans last year, though its poignant associations and historic forts were the goals of pilgrims of all nations.

All over northeastern France nowadays one sees groups of visitors kneeling before shrines, English, French, American, Italian, that commemorate the heroism and suffering of the years of warfare.

THE DOCTOR HELPS JACK

OF COURSE, children should never drink coffee. And many grown-ups, too, find that the caffein in coffee disagrees with them. If you are bothered by headaches or indigestion or can't sleep soundly...try Postum for 30 days. Postum contains no caffein. It is simply whole wheat and bran, roasted and slightly sweetened. Try Postum. You may miss coffee at first, but after 30 days you'll love Postum for its own rich, satisfying flavor. It is easy to make, delicious, economical, and may prove a real help.
